The classification of lands by Sheikh ul Islam Ibn Taymiyyah

Translated by a brother from the Anwar Mujabidin English Forum with nickname: "tarbiya"

Published by: http://www.muwahhidmedia.wordpress.com
And how many cities stronger than yours, which has expelled you."

Surat Maa’idah: 20-22
And the verses when Allah the Most High saved Moosa and his people from drowning in the sea He the Most High said: ("I will cause you to see the domain of the rebellious [dar ul-faasiqeen].") Surah al-’aaf:145

These were [named as] the domains of the rebellious at the time when the rebellious inhabited them. Then, when the righteous people inhabited them they became the domains of the righteous [dar us-Saaliheen].

This is a fundamental principle which it is obligatory to have knowledge of: just as the condition of its inhabitants change, so does the ruling concerning it. Verily praise and blame, reward and punishment are consequences of al-Eemaan [faith] and righteous actions, or consequences of disbelief, rebellion and disobedience.

See: "Majmoo’ al-Fatawa 27/144"

This was translated by a brother on the Anwar al-Mujabidin English Forum, with nick name: “tarbiya” Don’t forget him and us in your Du’a.