My brother the Mujahid: Don’t be confused. Ideas, analysis and news are many. Increase the time you spend reading Qur’an and the remembrance of Allah. We are going through a test in the course of which many will be deviated from the path.

My brother the Mujahid: Allah, the Exalted said, “Oh you who believe! Fear Allah and be with those who are truthful!” Fear Allah so that you will be able to identify the truthful, to accompany them and to remain patient with their companionship.

My brother the Mujahid: The true guidance is clear. If you do not know it, then there are guardians who do. Allah has honored them with knowledge, jihad and steadfastness. Follow them in spite of your whims. Wage jihad against your whims.

My brother the Mujahid: The confusion and difference of opinions and ideas that you are experiencing now is removed with Islamic knowledge. If you do not possess Islamic knowledge then pray to Allah to guide you and follow the scholars.

My brother the Mujahid: You will not be excused for following falsehood for thinking you are performing good deeds. Knowledge is available and it is upon you to search and strive in order to learn. To succeed, read tafsir, sira of the Prophet (PBUH) and hadith.

My brother the Mujahid: Lost is the one who leaves the book of Allah and the Sunnah of the Prophet (PBUH) in exchange for the ideas, analysis and politics of men, that which are affected by their selves and their whims.

My brother the Mujahid: If Satan drags you to argument, ideas and analysis then head for the nearest clear battlefront and do not leave. Save yourselves, oh, slaves of Allah!

My brother the Mujahid: By Allah, good is coming. Chaos is a natural transitional period. Hold your tongues, your pens and your touchscreens from excessive talk.

My brother the Mujahid: Death is closer to you than your jugular vein! It is not necessary for you to publish your opinion about every matter and event. Your first task is defending against the assailing enemy and inflicting great losses on every infidel!

My brother the Mujahid: The infidels of different religions and whims and creeds from across the world have united in a war against Islam. Thus, you have a lot of work and no time to enter into pointless discussions that take place from hotel rooms.

My brother the Mujahid: The miserable one is he who learns from his own mistakes while the happy one he is he who learns from the mistakes of others. Follow those of experience who have tried the Dunya before you with the condition that they be from those of knowledge and steadfastness.

My brother the Mujahid: Not every professional speaker (‘scholar’) deserves to be followed. Rather, he must act upon his knowledge, have waged jihad in the path of Allah and have practical knowledge of current events and life experience.

My brother the Mujahid: Be from the guardians of Sharia always. Stand by them. Be alert of the tricks and games of the enemy and know that they recur and that Allah has exposed them all in the Qur’an.

My brother the Mujahid: The guardians of Sharia in our times are men some of whom have been martyred and some who are still waiting, beginning with Sayyid Qutb and ‘Abdullah ‘Azzam, after which their students spread out.

My brother the Mujahid: The infidels are always trying to murder the truthful scholars, those who deserve to be followed. If they are unsuccessful then they distort their reputations with lies. Be aware and don’t let them deceive you!

My brother the Mujahid: “The Guardians of Sharia” is a documentary featuring the historical story of the modern jihad. Watch it in order to benefit therefrom.
