Introduction

Verily all praise is for Allah, we praise Him and seek His aid and ask for His forgiveness, and we seek refuge with Allah from the evils of ourselves and our evil actions. Whomever Allah guides there is none who can misguide him, and whomever Allah misguides there is none who can guide him, and I bear witness that none has the right to be worshipped except Allah Alone, having no partner, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger.

“O mankind, fear your Lord, who created you from one soul and created from it its mate and dispersed from both of them many men and women. And fear Allah, through whom you ask one another, and the wombs. Indeed, Allah is ever, over you, an Observer.” [Surah an-Nisa':1]

“O you who believe! Fear Allah, as He should be feared, and die not except in a state of Islam.” [Surah Al-i-Imran: 102]

“O you who believe! Fear Allah, and (always) and speak words of appropriate justice that He may make your conduct whole and sound and forgive you your sins: He who obeys Allah and His Messenger, has already attained the highest achievement.” [Surah Al-Ahzab: 70-71]

As for what follows:

Verily the most truthful speech is the Word of Allah and the best guidance is the guidance of Muhammad ﷺ, and the worst of affairs are the novelties and every novelty is an innovation and every innovation is a going astray and every going astray is in the Fire.
Our motivation for this treatise was to follow in the footsteps of the Salaf Al-Salih (righteous early predecessors), who were at the forefront in teaching the obligations of Islam.

This booklet is based on the works of Shaykh Abdul Aziz bin Marzouq At-Tarefe. We have primarily relied upon the two books he has written on the description of the Wudu and Salah of the Prophet ﷺ. The chapters have been summarized and restricted to only describing the Wudu’ and the Salah of the Prophet ﷺ. References have been quoted under each chapter, and definitions have been given for some Islamic terminologies.

We ask Allah to guide us to that which is proper - verily He is the One having authority over that and having the Power to do so. May Allah purify our intentions and hearts and accept our deeds from us.

The Description of the Ablution of the Prophet ﷺ

An-Niyyah (Intention)

An-Niyyah (intention): this is the firm intention and resolve in the heart to perform Wudu’ in obedience to the order of Allah and His Messenger ﷺ.

Intention is obligatory for every act of purification to remove ritual impurity.

سَمِعْتُ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ أَنَّ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم يَقُولُ "إِنَّمَا الْأَعْمَالُ بِالْنِّيَاتِ إِنَّمَا لِكُلِّ أُمَرَى مَا نُوِى فَمَنْ كَانَ هَاجِرَهُ إِلَى دُنْيَا يُصَبِّبُهَا أَوْ إِلَى اِمْرَأَةٍ يَنْكِحُهَا فَهَاجِرَهُ إِلَى مَا هَاجِرَ إِلَيْهِ".

It was narrated from 'Umar bin Al-Khattab: I heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ saying, "The reward of deeds depends upon the intentions and every person will get the reward according to what he has intended. So whoever emigrated for worldly benefits or for a woman to marry, his emigration was for what he emigrated for."

Tasmiyah (Saying Bismillah) At The Time of Wudu’

There is nothing authentic from the Prophet ﷺ on this issue.

The Basmalah being obligatory has not been said by any of the Salaf (early generation) from the Sahabah (companions of the Prophet ﷺ), the Tabi’in (followers of the Sahabah) or Atba’ Tabi’in (followers of the Tabi’in).

Tasmiyah at the time of performing Wudu’ is Mustahabb (recommended).

Siwak at The Time of Wudu’

Ibn Shamil said, “the Arak is a tall fine-shoot green tree with many leaves and branches, having weak wood and growing in hollows - miswaks are taken from it, being one of the citrus trees. Its singular is Arak and its plural Ara-ik.”

There is no difference of opinion on the legislation of using the Siwak at the time of Wudu’. However, there is a difference of opinion on when exactly to use it. There are evidences for it’s legislation from the Sunnah, from them are the following narrations:

Abu Hurairah (رضي الله عنه) narrates that the Prophet ﷺ said: “If it were not to be a hardship on my nation, I would order them to use the tooth stick (Siwak) when making Wudu’.”

Hudhaifah (رضي الله عنه) reported: Whenever he (the Prophet ﷺ) got up for prayer during the night, he cleansed his mouth with the tooth-stick.

That which is apparent is that Siwak is used before Wudu’ and not during it.

Facing The Direction of the Qiblah When Performing Wudu’

Facing the direction of the Qiblah while performing Wudu’ is not confirmed from the Sunnah.¹¹

Washing Each Body Part (Of Wudu’) Twice or Thrice

It is recommended to wash each body part (for Wudu’) three times, and that is the highest, most complete and most thorough way of performing Wudu’. It has come with evidences that are authentic, like that which has come in the narration of Uthman (الله عنه)

(رضي):

‘نَأْنَىٰ رَأَىَ عُثْمَانُ دُعاً بِوضُوءٍ، فَأَقْرَعَ عَلَىٰ يَدِيهِ مِنْ إِنَائِهِ، فُعَسْلَهُمَا تَلَاثُ مَرَاتٍ، ثُمَّ أَدْخَلَ يُبِينَهُ فيَ الْبَودُوءِ، ثُمَّ تَمْضَمَضَ، وَأَسْتَنْطَقَ، وَأَسْتَنْطَقَ ثُمَّ غَسَلَ وَجْهُهُ تَلَاثًا وَأُتْبِئَهُ إِلَى الْمَرْقَفِ تَلَاثًا، ثُمَّ مَسْحَ بَرَأْيِهِ، ثُمَّ غَسَلَ كَلٌّ رَجْلٌ تَلَاثًا…..¹²

Humran narrates: (the freed slave of `Uthman bin `Affan) I saw `Uthman bin `Affan (الله عنه) asking (for a tumbler of water) to perform ablution (and when it was brought) he poured water from it over his hands and washed them thrice and then put his right hand in the water container and rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out. Then he washed his face thrice and (then) forearms up to the elbows thrice, then passed his wet hands over his head and then washed each foot thrice…..¹²

It is authentic from the Prophet ﷺ that he washed the body parts (of Wudu’) twice, like what has been narrated from the narration of Abdullah bin Zaid (رضي الله عنه):

‘عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بُنِيٍّ زَيْدٍ، أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صلى الله عليه وسلم نَوَضَ أَحَدَّ مَرَاتَيْنِ مَرَاتَيْنِ.

‘Abdullah ibn Zaid (رضي الله عنه) narrates that the Prophet ﷺ performed ablution by washing the body parts twice.¹³

¹³ Sahih: Recorded in Sahih Bukhari (no. 158). Refer to ‘Sifatu Wudu an-Nabi ﷺ (pg. 65-66) by Shaykh Abdul Aziz bin Marzouq At-Tarefe
As for differentiating between the number of washes for each body part of Wudu', there is no problem in doing that i.e. washing some parts thrice and some other parts once and other parts twice.

This has been authentically attributed to the Prophet ﷺ from the following narration:

Yahya Al-Mazini narrates: A person asked `Abdullah bin Zaid (رضي الله عنه) who was the grandfather of `Amr bin Yahya, "Can you show me how Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to perform ablution?" `Abdullah bin Zaid replied in the affirmative and asked for water. He poured it on his hands and washed them twice, then he rinsed his mouth thrice and washed his nose with water thrice by putting water in it and blowing it out. He washed his face thrice and after that he washed his forearms up to the elbows twice and then passed his wet hands over his head from its front to its back and vice versa (beginning from the front and taking them to the back of his head up to the nape of the neck and then brought them to the front again from where he had started) and washed his feet (up to the ankles).

Washing The Hands Before Performing Wudu’

Washing the hands before performing Wudu’ is legislated by the agreement of the scholars and it is sunnah to wash them thrice.15

أُخْبِرْتُ أَنْ حُمْرَانَ مَوْلَى عُلَمَاءٍ أَخْبَرَهُ ﷺ، رَأَى عُلَمَانَ بَنَ عَفْانَ دَا بِإِنَاءٍ، فَأَفْرَغَ عَلَى كَفِيهِ تَلَاثٍ ُمِرَارٍ فَغَسَلَهُمَا. . . .

Humran narrated: I saw 'Uthman bin 'Affan (رضي الله عنه) asking for a tumbler of water (and when it was brought) he poured water over his hands and washed them thrice ......16

Starting from The Right When Performing Wudu’

To start from the right before the left when performing Wudu’ is Sunnah and it is not obligatory according to the Ijma (consensus of the scholars). The Ijma has been quoted by Ibn Mundhir17 and Ibn Qudamah.18

عَنْ عَائِشَةَ، قَالَتْ كَانَ الْبَيْتُ صلى الله عليه وسلم يُغَجِّبُ الْبَيْتِ فِي عَمَلِهِ وَتَرَجُّلِهِ وَظُهُورِهِ وَقَفَّةِ شَأْنَهِ كَلِهِ.

It was narrated that 'Aishah (رضي الله عنها) said: The Prophet ﷺ used to like to start from the right side on wearing shoes, combing his hair and cleaning or washing himself and on doing anything else.19

Performing The Wudu’ In The Order Mentioned in The Verse of The Quran

Allah (عَزَّ وَجَلَّ) says:

“O you who believe! When you prepare for prayer, wash your faces, and your hands (and arms) to the elbows; rub your heads (with water); and (wash) your feet to the ankles.”

It is not authentically proven that the Prophet ﷺ differed with the order of Wudu’ that is mentioned in the ayah - not even once.

The obligation of washing the parts in its sequential order (that is mentioned in the ayah) is the opinion of the majority of the scholars.

Washing Each Body Part of Wudu’ Immediately After the Previous One - Leaving No Time Gap in Between

That which is apparent from the narration of Uthman (رضي الله عنه) and the collection of Ahadith (narrations) on the description of the Wudu’ of the Prophet ﷺ, show evidence of the ruling of continuity in the washing of the limbs of Wudu’ without a break.

It has not been authentically proven from the Prophet ﷺ, nor from any of the companions to have a long break between washing the limbs of Wudu’ and the majority of the scholars are upon the view that continuity (washing each limb one after the other) is obligatory, the one who differed with that is Abu Hanifah.22

As for a short break between the washing of the limbs of Wudu’, then there is no harm in doing that, there is no difference on that according to the view of the Salaf and it does not nullify the Wudu’ according to Ijma’, which was made by Abu Hamid and An-Nawawi.23

Rinsing The Mouth and Nose – Its Description and Ruling

Al-Madmadah: It is washing the mouth and moving the water around within it.

Al-Istinshaq: It is taking water into the nose and sniffing it into its backmost part.

The Sunnah is to rinse the mouth and sniff water in the nose with the right hand, that is what is apparent from the narration and there is no difference in the narrations from the Prophet, nor from the actions of the sahabah. 24

The Sunnah is to take water for rinsing the mouth and sniffing the nose with one handful and to do that thrice, without separating between them, that is what is confirmed from the narration of Abdullah ibn Zaid. 25

`Amr bin Yahya narrated: (on the authority of his father) My uncle used to perform ablution extravagantly and once he asked `Abdullah bin Zaid (رضي الله عنه) to tell him how he had seen the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) performing ablution. He asked for an earthenware pot containing water ......: “and then put his hand in the earthenware pot and rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out thrice with one handful of water.....” 26

It is Sunnah to start with the washing of the mouth before sniffing water in the nose based on the actions of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم). Also, the Sahabah and Tabi’in have agreed upon that. 27

Ruling On Madmadah (Rinsing The Mouth with Water), Istinshaq (Sniffing Water into The Nose) And Istinthar (Expelling The Water from The Nose After Sniffing Water in It)

Rinsing the mouth and sniffing water into the nose are both Sunnah in Wudu’, according to the correct opinion. It does not invalidate the Wudu’ if they are left out. this is what was said by the majority of the scholars, it was said by Malik, Abu Hanifah, Ash-Shafi’i and other than them.

Verily many of the Salaf did not make obligatory that which was not mentioned explicitly in the ayah of Wudu’ in the Qur’aan.

The Description and Ruling On Istinthar (Expelling The Water from The Nose After Sniffing Water in It)

Al-Istinthar: is expelling the water from the nose after sniffing water in it.

Humran narrated: I saw `Uthman bin `Affan (رضي الله عنه) asking (for a tumbler of water) to perform ablution (and when it was brought) he poured water from it over his hands and washed them thrice and then put his right hand in the water container and rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out....
Performing Istinthar thrice:

Yahya Al-Mazini narrated: A person asked `Abdullah bin Zaid (رضي الله عنه) who was the grandfather of `Amr bin Yahya, "Can you show me how Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to perform ablution?" `Abdullah bin Zaid replied in the affirmative and asked for water. He poured it on his hands and washed them twice, then he rinsed his mouth thrice and washed his nose with water thrice by putting water in it and blowing it out...

Istinthar is legislated in Wudu’ without any difference of opinion and it is Sunnah with the agreement of the four Imams.

Istinthar is to be performed with the left hand, which is different to Madmadah and Istinshaq which are performed with the right because Istinthar is performed to take out dirt from the nose.

Washing The Face

This is mentioned in the two Sahihs:

`Ata' bin Yasar narrated: Ibn `Abbas performed ablution and washed his face (in the following way): He ladled out a handful of water, rinsed his mouth and washed his nose with it by putting in water and then blowing it out. He then, took another handful (of water) and did like this (gesturing) joining both hands, and washed his face....

37 Sahih: Recorded in Sahih Bukhari (no. 164) and Sahih Muslim (no.226)
38 Sahih: Recorded in Sahih Bukhari (no. 140)
For one who has a beard he should use the water left after washing his face to run water through his beard.\(^{39}\)

One should not put extra water into the eyes to wash them whilst washing the face - it is not from the Sunnah to do that.

The Difference in Ruling for Washing the Thin and Thick Beard

Beards are of two types:

1) Thin beard: As for a thin beard through which the skin may be seen, both the inner layer (the skin) and outer surface must be washed.

2) Thick beard: As for the thick beard one is to wash the outer surface of the beard, but it is not obligatory to wash the inner layers or the skin beneath it, but it is prescribed to run the fingers through it.\(^{40}\)

Washing The Arms Including the Elbows

Muslim narrates that 'Uthman (رضي الله عنه) called for water to make wudoo and washed his hands thrice...”

Humran narrates that the Prophet ﷺ called for water to make wudoo and washed his hands thrice. Washing the arms from the fingertips up to and including the elbows is from the obligatory acts of Wudu’ with no disagreement amongst the scholars, it is from the four obligatory acts which are agreed upon - the face, the hands, the head and the two feet.

It has been legislated to wash the hands from the fingertips up to and including the elbows after washing the face. One is to wash up to the elbows only, and not further, according to the correct opinion, as Allah says:

"O you who believe! When you prepare for prayer, wash your faces, and your hands (and arms) to the elbows...." (Qur'an 2:27)

That is also apparent from the action of the Prophet ﷺ in the narration of Uthman (رضي الله عنه) and Abdullah ibn Zaid (رضي الله عنه) and other then them.

That which is correct is that washing the elbows is obligatory just as it is obligatory to wash the hands, for it is mentioned in the ayah of Qur’aan and the narrations of the Prophet ﷺ.

It has not been confirmed to leave them (washing of the elbows) in any narration (of the Prophet ﷺ) nor from the actions of his companions or from the Tabi’in (the companions of the Sahabah).

Running Water Between the Fingers

Running water between the fingers is Sunnah. The most authentic narration in this chapter is the narration of Laqīt bin Sabrah (رضي الله عنه):

"Аَسْمَعْتُ عَاصِمَ بْنَ الْقَيْتَرَ بْنَ صَيْبَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي، قَالَ قُلْتُ ِيَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ أَحْيَانِيُ عَنِ الْوُضُوءِ فَقَالَ أَسْمَعْتُ الْوُضُوءَ وَخَلَلْ بَيْنَ الْاْصْبَاعِ وَبَالَغَ فِي الإِسْتِنْشَاقِ إِلَّا أَنْ تَكُونَ صَابِمًا."

Asim bin Laqīt bin Sabrah narrated: From his father who said: "I said, 'O Messenger of Allah! Inform me about Wudu.' So he said: 'Perform Wudu well, and go between the fingers, and perform Istinshaq extensively except when fasting."

Running water through the fingers is done by entering water between the fingers and washing them using the fingers.

Adjusting The Ring On the Finger for Wudu'

It is recommended to adjust the ring on the finger even if water can reach underneath it without adjustment.

As for if the ring is tight on the finger to the extent that water is prevented from flowing underneath, then it becomes obligatory to adjust the ring so water can reach the skin.

Wiping The Head

Wiping the head is from the obligatory acts of Wudu’ with no difference of opinion on it. ⁴⁶

Allah (عَزَّوُجَلَّ) says:

وَأَمْسِحُوا بِرَّعُوْسَيْكُمْ…

“...wipe over your heads (with water).” ⁴⁷

Humran narrates that 'Uthman (رضي الله عنه) called for water to make wudoo and so mentioned the way in which the Prophet ﷺ made Wudu’. Humran said: “Then passed his wet hands over his head.” ⁴⁸

It has not been confirmed from the Prophet ﷺ nor from his companions or anyone after them that they left wiping the head (whilst doing Wudu’) and there is no license to do that.

Ibn Abbas would order the one who forgot to wipe the head (in Wudu’) to repeat his prayer (meaning make Wudu’ again for the prayer). ⁴⁹

Taking Fresh Water Again to Wipe the Head

The Sunnah is to take fresh water, after washing the hands and arms, to wipe the head.⁵⁰

The Description of Wiping the Head

The Sunnah way to wipe the head is: Passing wet hands over the head from its front to its back and vice versa - beginning from the front and taking them to the back of the head up to the nape of the neck and then bringing them to the front again from where one started.

Yahya Al-Mazini narrated: A person asked 'Abdullah bin Zaid who was the grandfather of `Amr bin Yahya, "Can you show me how Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to perform ablution?" 'Abdullah bin Zaid replied in the affirmative and asked for water...... then passed his wet hands over his head from its front to its back and vice versa (beginning from the front and taking them to the back of his head up to the nape of the neck and then brought them to the front again from where he had started) ....⁵²

Wiping The Back of the Head

It has not been confirmed from the Prophet ﷺ that he wiped the back of his head. The back of the head meaning: below the hairline at the back of the head.\(^{53}\)

Number of Times to Wipe the Head

The wiping of the head is done once and it has not been confirmed to wipe it thrice from the Prophet ﷺ and nor from any of his companions.

The narrations of Uthman\(^{54}\), Ali\(^{55}\), Abdullah ibn Zaid\(^{56}\), Ibn Abbas\(^{57}\), Abu Hurairah\(^{58}\), Mu’awiyah\(^{59}\), Aishah\(^{60}\) mention the number of wipings for each of the body parts of Wudu’ except the head.\(^{61}\)

Wiping The Head for The One Who Is Bald

The ruling for the one who is bald is the same as the one who has hair - he must wipe his head the same way if he was to have hair.\(^{62}\)

Wiping Long Hair, The Imamah (Turban) And The Khimar (Women’s Head Cover)

Hair that descends below the hairline at the back of the head do not need to be wiped. This ruling applies equally to both males and females.

The ruling on a woman’s scarf depends on the way it is fitted:

1) If it is fitted tightly around the required area, then it can be wiped over, as is the case with men’s turbans.

2) If it is loosely fitted, then it must be removed to allow the wiping of the hair.

Shaykh At-Tarefe said: It will suffice to wipe over the Khimar, even if it isn’t tightly fitted, as long as the forelock or both sides of the head are wiped with it.

Wiping the forelock was permitted by Ata’63, ibn Abi Layla64 and Hasan65. As for wiping the sides of the head it has been authentically attributed to Abul Aliah66 and Fatimah bint Al-Mundhir67.

Wiping The Ears and Its Rulings

That which is correct is that wiping the ears is Sunnah, to the extent that some scholars declared Ijma’ on that, those who ruled it as such were Ibn Jarir69 and Ibn Abdul Barr70.

Description of Wiping the Ears

Ibn Abbas, describing the Wudu’ of the Prophet ﷺ, said,

"...he wiped his head and his ears, the inside with his forefinger and the outside with his thumb..."\textsuperscript{72}

Number of Times to Wipe the Ears

Wiping the ears is mentioned (in the description of Wudu’) with the head so it takes its same ruling in number also (meaning to wipe them once), it has not been legislated to wipe them more than once.\textsuperscript{73}

Running Water Through the Beard with The Fingers

There are no established narrations lifted to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, but it has been established from his companions.

Running water through the beard with the fingers is well known amongst the people of knowledge, and there are narrations from the Salaf supporting this.

Running water through the beard with the fingers is done when washing the face and not when wiping the head, as that has not been established from any narration from the Prophet ﷺ or any statement from his companions.\textsuperscript{74}

The Three Ways of Running Water Through the Beard:

1) Running water through the beard: That is known and was the practice of the companions of the Prophet ﷺ. It has been authentically narrated from Ibn Abbas⁷⁵, Ibn Umar⁷⁶, Anas ibn Malik⁷⁷ and Abu Musa Al-Ash’ari.⁷⁸

As for the description of running water through the beard it is as follows:

○ It is narrated from some of the companions that they would insert their fingers through their beards until they reached the roots of their beard. It has been authentically narrated from Ibn Abbas⁷⁹, ibn Umar⁸⁰ and Abu Musa Al-Ash’ari.⁸¹

2) The second way to run water through the beard is to wipe the outer part of the beard: There is no authentic narration from the Prophet ﷺ, rather it was an action from a companion and some of the Salaf. It has been authentically narrated from Ibn Abbas.⁸²

3) The third way is washing the beard by pouring water directly on it and rubbing it rigorously: This has not been legislated nor is it from the Sunnah as it has not been confirmed from the Prophet ﷺ nor from his companions.⁸³

The Ruling On Running Water Through the Beard

It is not obligatory to run fingers through the beard, due to lack of authentic evidence whether it be in command form or through his (the Prophet’s ﷺ) action.

Not running water through the beard was the practice of some of the Salaf from amongst them Ibn Umar, Abu Musa Al-Ash’ari, Ibn al-Hanafiyyah, Hasan, Makhool and An-Nakha’i.

Number of Times to Run Water Through the Beard

No authentic narrations exist regarding running water through the beard, nor about the number of times to do so.

Running water through the beard once is sufficient. If the beard is very thick, there is nothing wrong with running water through the beard during each washing of the face.

The Ruling On Getting Fresh Water to Run Through the Beard

What is apparent from the narrations of the Prophet ﷺ and the action of the Sahabah is that they would not take fresh water to run through the beard.

Washing The Feet One at A Time and The Number of Washing

Washing the feet is from the obligations of Wudu’, that is apparent from the words of Allah (عَزَّ وَجَلَّ):

وَأَرْجِلْكُمْ إِلَى الْكَعْبِيَّنِ

“...and (wash) your feet to the ankles.”

There is no difference of opinion amongst the scholars that washing the feet is from the obligatory acts of Wudu’.

All the narrations that have been narrated on the description of Wudu’ mention the washing of the feet, like that which has come in the two Sahihs (Bukhari and Muslim) from the Hadith of ‘Uthman and ‘Abdullah ibn Zaid.

Washing Between the Toes

The narrations related to washing between the toes have hidden defects in them (which make the narrations weak).

The washing between the fingers has been confirmed generally from the narration of Laqît ibn Sabrah:

"اَسْبِعِ الْوُضُوْءَ وَخُلْلِ بَيْنَ الْأَصَابِعِ"

"Perform Wudu well, and go between the fingers."

Included in it is the washing between the fingers and between the toes.

Wiping The Feet Whilst Performing Wudu’

There is nothing established clearly that the Prophet ﷺ sufficed by just wiping both of his feet while they were bare.⁹⁸

Words of Remembrance and Invocations After Performing Wudu’

It has been established from the Prophet ﷺ that he would say after performing Wudu’:

أشهد أن لا إله إلا الله وحده لا شريك له وأشهد أن محمداً عبده ورسوله

I testify that there is no deity deserving of worship in truth except Allah, the One, there is no associate with Him and I testify that Muhammad is His servant and His Messenger.¹⁰⁰

In another another narration:

أشهد أن لا إله إلا الله وان محمداً عبده ورسوله

“I testify that there is no deity deserving of worship in truth except Allah and that Muhammad is the servant of Allah and His messenger” the reward of that statement is when he said: “The eight gates of Paradise would be opened for him and he may enter by whichever of them he wishes.”¹⁰¹

It is also authentically attributed to Abu Sa’id Al-Khudri (رضي الله عنه) that he would say, “Whoever makes Wudu’ then says upon finishing the wudoo:

سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمَدِكِ أَشْهِدَ أَنَّ لا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنتَ أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْكَ كَبِيبٌ فِي رَقٍّ نَمْ طَيِّعٌ يَطَابِعُ فَلَمْ يُكَسَّرْ إِلَى يوْمٍ الْقِيَامَةِ.

“Glory is to You, O Allah, and praise; I bear witness that there is none worthy of worship but You. I seek Your forgiveness and turn to You in repentance.” It is written in a parchment, then sealed and is not opened till Judgement Day.”¹⁰²

Looking Towards the Sky After Wudu’

As for looking towards the sky after performing Wudu’ before saying the words of remembrance or invocation, this has not been confirmed in any narration.

Performing Two Units (Rak‘ahs) Of Prayer After Completing Wudu’

It is Sunnah to perform two units of prayer after performing Wudu’. It is allowed to combine intentions (when praying the two units of prayer after Wudu’) like combining with Tahiyyatul Masjid, Sunnah Rawatib\(^\text{103}\), two units of prayer between the Adhan and Iqamah, Salat-ul Duha (forenoon prayer) and other than that.\(^\text{104}\)

Then he washed his face thrice and (then) forearms up to the elbows thrice, then passed his wet hands over his head and then washed each foot thrice. After that `Uthman said, "I saw the Prophet ﷺ performing ablution like this of mine, and he said, 'If anyone performs ablution like that of mine and offers a two-rak`ahs prayer during which he does not think of anything else (not related to the present prayer) then his past sins will be forgiven.'\(^\text{105}\)

Wiping Off the Water from Oneself After Wudu’

It has not been confirmed from the Prophet ﷺ that he wiped the water from Wudu’ from himself, the narrations that mention wiping are all weak, like the narrations of Mu’adh (ibn Jabal)\textsuperscript{106}, Aishah\textsuperscript{107}, Salman\textsuperscript{108}, Abu Bakr\textsuperscript{109} and it was said by Imam Tirmidhi “There is no confirmed narration in this chapter.”\textsuperscript{110}

It has been narrated from some companions that they would wipe the water from themselves after Wudu’. It is authentically proven from Anas ibn Malik\textsuperscript{111}, Hasan bin Ali\textsuperscript{112} and others.

It is not known from any of the companions of the Prophet that they disliked wiping the water from the body after Wudu’\textsuperscript{113}

The Description of the Prayer of the Prophet (ﷺ)

Niyyah (Intention) For The Prayer

Intention should be made in the heart and to utter it audibly is an innovation.⁹¹⁴

Narrated by Umar ibn Khattab (رضي الله عنه) saying, “I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “The reward of deeds depends upon the intentions and every person will get the reward according to what he has intended. So whoever emigrates for worldly benefits or to marry a woman, his emigration will be for what he emigrated for.”¹¹⁵

Facing The Qiblah During the Prayer

It is obligatory to face the Qiblah (direction of the Ka’bah in Makkah) during both the obligatory and optional prayers, except for the person who is unable to, like the person praying on a plane or a ship that turns away from Qiblah, such a person should begin their prayer facing the Qiblah and there is no issue if the direction changes whilst they are performing it.¹¹⁶

And from where so ever you start forth (for prayers), turn your face in the direction of al-Masjid al-Haraam (at Makkah), and where so ever you are, turn your faces towards it....”

Narrated by Bara' bin `Azib (رضي الله عنه): Allah's Messenger ﷺ prayed facing Baitul-Maqdis for sixteen or seventeen months but he loved to face the Ka`ba (in Makkah) so Allah revealed: "Verily, We have seen the turning of your face to the heaven!" (2:144)

So the Prophet ﷺ faced the Ka`ba and the fools amongst the people namely "the Jews" said, "What has turned them from their Qiblah (Baitul-Maqdis) which they formerly observed" (Allah revealed): "Say: 'To Allah belongs the East and the West. He guides whom he will to a straight path.'" (2:142) A man prayed with the Prophet (facing the Ka`ba) and went out. He saw some of the Ansar praying the `Asr prayer with their faces towards Baitul-Maqdis, he said, "I bear witness that I prayed with Allah's Messenger ﷺ facing the Ka`ba." So all the people turned their faces towards the Ka`ba.

Rulings Related to Facing the Qiblah During Optional Prayers

It is also permissible to pray the optional prayer in a car or any other mode of transport during travel by gesturing the movements of the prayer, without having to face the Qiblah.\(^{119}\)

Jabir (رضي الله عنه) narrated: Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to pray (optional, non-obligatory prayer) while riding on his mount (Rahila) wherever it turned, and whenever he wanted to pray the compulsory prayer he dismounted and prayed facing the Qiblah.\(^{120}\)

Qiyam (Standing) In The Prayer

The Qiyam is a pillar\(^{121}\) in the obligatory prayers and a Sunnah in the optional prayers. The sick, elderly and those experiencing difficulty in standing may use a stick or lean on a wall to aid them in prayer if necessary.\(^{122}\)

Allah (عزّ وجلّ) says,

Those Who Are Not Able to Stand in Prayer

Whoever cannot offer prayer while standing, can offer prayer while sitting and if he is not able to offer prayer while sitting, they can offer the prayer lying on their side.

Narrated by `Imran bin Husain (رضي الله عنه): Had piles, so I asked the Prophet ﷺ about the prayer. He said, "Pray while standing and if you can't, pray while sitting and if you can not do even that, then pray lying on your side." ¹²⁴

Standing, Sitting or Lying Down in Voluntary Prayers

With regard to voluntary prayers, it is permissible for those with or without an excuse to offer them sitting down during prayer, however the rewards vary for one who prays standing, sitting or lying down.

Narrated by `Abdullah bin Buraidah: `Imran bin Husain (رضي الله عنه) had piles. Once Abu Ma`mar narrated from `Imran bin Husain had said, "I asked the Prophet ﷺ about the prayer of a person while sitting. He said, 'It is better for one to pray standing; and whoever prays sitting gets half the reward of that who prays while standing; and whoever prays while lying gets half the reward of that who prays while sitting." ¹²⁵

Takbiratul Ihram – The Opening Takbir (saying Allahu Akbar)

On the day of his death, the Prophet ﷺ said, "The Imam is to be followed. Say the Takbir when he says it; bow if he bows; if he says 'Sami`a l-lahu liman hamidah', say, 'Rabbana wa laka l-hamd', prostrate if he prostrates and pray sitting altogether if he prays sitting."

Raising The Hands Up to The Shoulders or Earlobes Whilst Saying the Takbir

I saw that whenever Allah's Messenger ﷺ stood for the prayer, he used to raise both his hands up to the shoulders, and used to do the same on saying the Takbir for bowing and on raising his head from it and used to say, "Sami`a l-lahu liman hamidah". But he did not do that (i.e. raising his hands) in prostrations.

Narrated by Abu Hurairah (رضي الله عنه): The Prophet ﷺ said, "The Imam is to be followed. Say the Takbir when he says it; bow if he bows; if he says 'Sami`a l-lahu liman hamidah', say, 'Rabbana wa laka l-hamd', prostrate if he prostrates and pray sitting altogether if he prays sitting."

126 Sahih: Recorded in Sahih Bukhari (no. 734)
127 Sahih: Recorded in Sahih Bukhari (no. 736)
Malik bin Huwairith (رضي الله عنه) reported: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ raised his hands opposite his ears at the time of reciting the takbir (i.e. at the time of beginning the prayer) and then again raised his hands opposite the ears at the time of bowing and when he lifted his head after bowing he said: 'Allah listened to him who praised Him', and did like it (raised his hands up to the ears).\textsuperscript{128}

\textbf{When Is It Sunnah to Raise the Hands?}

It is authentically proven from the Prophet ﷺ that the hands should be raised when saying takbir in four places:

1) The opening Takbir (takbeerat al-Ihraam),
2) Before bowing,
3) After rising from bowing, and
4) After standing up following the first Tashahhud in a three or four rak’ah prayer.

\textsuperscript{128} \textbf{Sahih:} Recorded in Sahih Muslim (no. 391b)
Where to Look While Standing in Prayer

There is no authentic evidence indicating where the Messenger of Allah ﷺ would look in his prayer.

What is correct is that the one praying may look at any place where he may gain more khushu (either the place of prostration, straight forward, at one’s feet or at one’s hands), the only prohibition is that one is not allowed to look up to the heavens, as the Prophet ﷺ said:

Narrated by Anas bin Malik (رضي الله عنه): The Prophet ﷺ said, "What is wrong with those people who look towards the sky during the prayer?" His talk grew stern while delivering this speech and he said, "They should stop (looking towards the sky during the prayer); otherwise their eyesight would be taken away."

Also, it is disliked to look to the right or to the left except if necessary.

Where to Position the Hands Whilst Standing in The Prayer

One should place their right hand on their left forearm when standing.

Narrated by Sahl bin Sa`d (رضي الله عنه): The people were ordered to place the right hand on the left forearm in the prayer. Abu Hazim said, "I knew that the order was from the Prophet ﷺ." ¹³²

It has not been authentically proven from the Prophet ﷺ as to where he would place his hands in prayer while standing. The narrations that have come about different places he would place his hands are all weak.

One may position his hands either on his chest or on his belly button or on his stomach and there is no problem with that. The only confirmed Sunnah is putting the right hand on the left. ¹³³

Blessed and High are You, I seek Your forgiveness and repent unto You.'

Seeking Refuge in Allah

One should say the Ta’awwuz (seeking refuge in Allaah) as mentioned in the Qur’an:

```
أعوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشِّيَاطِنِ الرَّجِيمِ
```

“I seek refuge with Allaah from Shaitân (Satan), the outcast (the cursed one).”

Then Say Inaudibly

Anas (رضي الله عنه) reported: I observed prayer along with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and with Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman (may Allah be pleased with all of them), but I never heard any one of them reciting Bismillah-ir-Rahman-ir-Rahim loudly.\(^{138}\)

Reciting Surah al-Fatihah

It is a pillar to recite Surah Fatihah in the Prayer.

Narrated by Ubadah bin As-Saamit (رضي الله عنه) that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Whoever does not recite (Surah) Al-Fatihah in his prayer, his prayer is invalid."\(^{139}\)

Saying Ameen After Fatihah

One should say Ameen (moderately) loud.

Abu Hurairah (رضي الله عنه) narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, "If the Imam says: 'Ameen', say 'Ameen' for if one's Ameen corresponds with the Ameen of the angels, all of his previous sins will be forgiven."\(^{140}\)

Reciting Surah Fatihah Behind the Imam

The one who is following the Imam in the aloud prayers (Fajr, first two rak’ah of Maghrib and Isha) should not recite Surah Fatihah behind him, which is upon the correct view.

Allah (ﷻ) says:

وَإِذَا قَرَى الْقُرآنِ فَاسْمِعُواْ لَهُ وَاتَّبِعُواْ أَلْعَبَكَمْ تُرْحَمُونَ

“When The Qur’an is recited, listen to it, and be silent so you may receive mercy.” 141

It is reported from more than one from amongst the Salaf that this verse was referring to the “Prayer”. 142

So, Surah Fatihah is to be recited behind the Imam in the Dhuhr and Asr prayer, the last Rakah of Maghrib, and the last two Rakah of Isha.

Reciting Portions of the Qur’an After Surah Fatihah

One should read after Surah Fatiha anything that is easy for him from the Qur’an. The scholars have agreed that it is recommended to recite a Surah after Fatihah in the (two) Rak’ahs of Fajr and the first two Rak’ahs of all the other prayers. 143

Narrated by `Abdullah bin Abi Qatadah: My father (رضى الله عنه) said, "The Prophet (ﷺ) used to recite Al-Fatiha followed by another Surah in the first two rak’at of the prayer and used to recite only Al-Fatiha in the last two rak’at of the Zuhr prayer. Sometimes a verse or so was audible and he used to prolong the first rak’at more than the second and used to do the same in the ‘Asr and Fajr prayers." 144

Ata’ heard Abu Hurairah (رضي الله عنه) say: “In every prayer there is recitation. What we heard the Prophet ﷺ say, we tell you, and what he did not tell us about we can not tell you. Whoever recites Umm al-Kitāab (i.e. Surah al-Fatihah) has done enough, and whoever does more than that, that is better.”

Those Who Are Unable to Recite Surah Fatihah

If a person is unable to recite Surah al-Fatihah at all or is unable to learn it, or he has just become Muslim and the time for prayer has come and there is not enough time for him to learn it, then he is to act upon the following hadith:

Narrated by Abdullah ibn Abi Awfa: (رضي الله عنه): A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: I can not memorize anything from the Qur’an: so teach me something which is sufficient for me. He said: Say,

سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لَهُ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَكِيمُ الْقَرِيمُ

“Glory be to Allah, and praise be to Allah, and there is no god but Allah, and Allah is most great, and there is no might and no strength but in Allah”.....

Raising The Hands Before Going into Rukoo’ (Bowing Position)

Narrated by `Abdullah bin `Umar (رضي الله عنه): I saw that whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ stood for the prayer, he used to raise both his hands up to the shoulders, and used to do the same on saying the Takbir for bowing and on raising his head from it and used to say, "Sami`a l-lahu liman hamidah". But he did not do that (i.e. raising his hands) in prostrations.¹⁴⁷

Malik bin Huwairith (رضي الله عنه) reported: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ raised his hands opposite his ears at the time of reciting the takbir (i.e. at the time of beginning the prayer) and then again raised his hands opposite the ears at the time of bowing and when he lifted his head after bowing he said: ‘Allah listened to him who praised Him’, and did like it (raised his hands up to the ears).¹⁴⁸

The Obligation of Performing Rukoo’ In A Tranquil Manner

Narrated by Abu Hurairah (رضي الله عنه): Once the Prophet ﷺ entered the mosque, a man came in, offered the prayer and greeted the Prophet. The Prophet returned his greeting and said to him, "Go back and pray again for you have not prayed." The man offered the prayer again, came back and greeted the Prophet ﷺ. He said to him thrice, "Go back and pray again for you have not prayed." The man said, "By Him Who has sent you with the truth! I do not know a better way of praying. Kindly teach Me how to pray." He said, "When you stand for the prayer, say Takbir and then recite from the Qur’an what you know and then bow with calmness till you feel at ease, then rise from bowing till you stand straight. Afterwards prostrate calmly till you feel at ease and then raise (your head) and sit with Calmness till you feel at ease and then prostrate with calmness till you feel at ease in prostration and do the same in the whole of your prayer." 150

Standing Upright After Rising from Rukoo’

One should stand upright, until his body is tranquil.

Narrated by Al-Bara’ (رضى الله عنه): The bowing, the prostrations, the period of standing after bowing and the interval between the two prostrations of the Prophet  used to be equal in duration.166

Placing The Right Hand On the Left Hand After Rising from Rukoo’ Just Like One Does When Standing at The Beginning of the Prayer

Chapter of Sujood (Prostration)

Perfecting the Prostration

Narrated by Abu Wail: Hudhaifa (رضي الله عنه) said, "I saw a person not performing his bowing and prostrations perfectly. When he completed the prayer, I told him that he had not prayed." I think that Hudhaifa added (i.e. said to the man), "Had you died, you would have died on a tradition other than that of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ."

The Manner of Going into Prostration

One then goes into prostration and has the choice to put their hands on the ground before their knees or vice versa, depending on his circumstances.

There is nothing confirmed (from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ) on this issue (what to put first, hands or knees when going down into prostration).

Prostrating on Seven Parts of the Body

It is obligatory for all seven body parts mentioned in the narration below to be on the ground whilst prostrating.

Narrated by Ibn `Abbas (رضي الله عنه): The Prophet ﷺ was ordered (by Allah) to prostrate on seven parts and not to tuck up the clothes or hair (while praying). Those parts are; the forehead (along with the tip of nose), both hands, both knees, and (toes of) both feet.¹⁷¹

Placing The Palms On the Ground, Keeping The Elbows Up and Away from The Sides (Of The Body)

Narrated `by Abdullah bin Malik bin Buhainah (رضي الله عنه): Whenever the Prophet ﷺ used to offer prayer he used to keep his arms away (from the body) so that the whiteness of his armpits was visible.¹⁷²

Keeping The Toes Directed Towards the QiblahWhilst in Prostration

It is recommended for the toes to be directed toward the Qiblah.

Narrated by Muhammad bin `Amr bin `Ata' (رضي الله عنه): I was sitting with some of the companions of Allah's Messenger ﷺ and we were discussing about the way of praying of the Prophet ﷺ. Abu Humaid As-Sa`idi (رضي الله عنه) said, "I remember the prayer of Allah's Messenger ﷺ better than any one of you. I saw him raising both his hands up to the level of the shoulders on saying the Takbir; and on bowing he placed his hands on both knees and bent his back straight, then he stood up straight from bowing till all the vertebrate took their normal positions. This sitting can be performed in any one of the following two ways:

First description: Which is to place the right foot in an upright position whilst directing the toes towards the Qiblah and spreading out the left foot in a way which makes it easy to sit on (the position of Iftiraash):

It was narrated from Al-Qaasim who narrated from 'Abdullah—he is Ibn Abdullah bin 'Umar— that: His father (Ibn 'Umar) said: "One of the Sunnah’s of the prayer is to hold the right foot upright and point its toes toward the Qiblah, and to sit on the left foot."

Second description: It is when a person sits on both heels with both feet in the upright position, with their toes pointing towards the Qiblah (the position of Al-Iq’aa):

Tawoos said, “We asked Ibn Abbas (رضي الله عنه) about sitting on the heels and feet (between the two prostrations). He said ‘It is Sunnah.’ We said to him, ‘We find it harsh on the leg.’ Ibn Abbas (رضي الله عنه) said, ‘But it is the Sunnah of your Prophet’.

Chapter Of Jalsah Al-Istiraha (Sitting For Rest) Before Getting Up For The Next Rak‘ah

Narrated by Malik bin Huwairith Al-Laythi: I saw the Prophet praying and in the odd rak`ah, he used to sit for a moment before getting up.

Notes:

- Jalsah Al-Istiraha is a brief pause, sitting for a short while after the second prostration in the first and third rak`ah, before standing up.

- The Takbir should be pronounced as one rises from prostration and not from the Jalsah Al-Istiraha (sitting of rest) but if one has not pronounced the Takbir from the prostration then he should from the Jalsah Al-Istiraha.

- Pronouncing two Takbirs is not required and Ijma’ (consensus of the scholars) has been declared on that by Al-Majd Ibn Taymiyyah (the grandfather of Ibn Taymiyyah).

How to Support Oneself On the Ground While Standing After Finishing the Rak'ah
(After The Two Prostrations)

One may support himself on the ground with their hands and get up:

Narrated by Ayyub: Abu Qilabah said, "Malik bin Huwairith (رضى الله عنه) came to us and led us in the prayer in this mosque of ours and said, 'I lead you in prayer but I do not want to offer the prayer but just to show you how Allah's Prophet performed his prayers.' I asked Abu Qilabah, 'How was the prayer of Malik bin Huwairith?' He replied, 'Like the prayer of this Sheikh of ours-- i.e. `Amr bin Salima.' That Sheikh used to pronounce the Takbir perfectly and when he raised his head from the second prostration he would sit for a while and then support himself on the ground and get up."

Rising for the Second Rak’ah

A person prays the second rak’ah as mentioned above, except that one does not recite the opening supplication at the beginning and the recitation in the second rak’ah is half (in length) in comparison to the first rak’ah.

I saw him raising both his hands up to the level of the shoulders on saying the Takbir; and on bowing he placed his hands on both knees and bent his back straight, then he stood up straight from bowing till all the vertebrate took their normal positions. In prostrations, he placed both his hands on the ground with the forearms away from the ground and away from his body, and his toes were facing the Qiblah. On sitting In the second rak`ah (first Tashahud) he sat on his left foot and propped up the right one....."188

What to Say in The First Tashahud

One must recite the following:

التحياتُ لِلَّهِ، وَالصُّلواتُ وَالطِّيباتُ، السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ وَرَحْمَتُ اللَّهِ وَبِرَكَانِهِ، السَّلَامُ عَلَيْنا
وَعَلَى عِبَادِ اللَّهِ الصَّالِحِينَ أَشَهِدَ أنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ، وَأَشَهِدَ أنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ

(All the compliments, prayers and good things are due to Allah; peace be on you, O Prophet, and Allah's mercy and blessings [be on you]. Peace be on us an on the pious subjects of Allah). (If you say that, it will reach all the subjects in the heaven and the earth). (I testify that there is no Deity [worthy of worship] but Allah, and I testify that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger). 189

Note:

In the first Tashahud there is no saying of Salawaat (Prayers) upon the Messenger of Allah ﷺ upon that which is the correct view, what has come from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ on that is not established and it is not from the Sunnah (to do so in the first Tashahud). 190

Raising The Index Finger Whilst in Tashahud Without Moving It

Pointing with the finger is prescribed in the first and last Tashahud, however, moving it is not established from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.

‘Abdullah bin Zubair narrated on the authority of his father (رضي الله عنه) (father) that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ sat for supplication, i.e. Tashahhud (blessing and supplication), he placed his right hand on his right thigh and his left hand on his left thigh, and pointed with his forefinger, and placed his thumb on his (middle) finger, and covered his knee with the palm of his left hand."

Two Descriptions On How to Clasp the Hands Whilst in Tashahud

1 - Form a ring like (fifty-three) and point with the index finger

Ibn Umar (رضي الله عنه) said: When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ sat for Tashahhud, he placed his left hand on his left knee and placed his right hand on his right knee, and he formed a ring like (fifty-three) and pointed with his finger of attestation.193

The term “fifty-three” in the narration of Ibn `Umar (رضي الله عنه) refers to the act of clasping down the little finger and the ring finger and placing the thumb on the middle finger to form a ring.

2 - To close all the fingers and point with the index finger

It Is Sunnah to Raise the Hands During Prayer When Standing Up After the First Tashahhud for The Third Rak'ah

The fourth place where it is Sunnah to raise the hands during prayer is when standing up after the first Tashahhud for the third rak'ah.

One is meant to raise the hands after getting up from the first Tashahud and standing up for the third rakah.

Narrated by Nafi': Whenever Ibn `Umar (رضي الله عنه) started the prayer with Takbir, he used to raise his hands: whenever he bowed, he used to raise his hands (before bowing) and also used to raise his hands on saying, "Sami`a l-lahu liman hamidah", and he used to do the same on rising from the second rak'ah (for the 3rd rak'ah). Ibn `Umar (رضي الله عنه) said: "The Prophet ﷺ used to do the same."

The Last Tashahud

Correct Way for Sitting in the Second Tashahud: Description of The Sitting in The Last Tashahud - The Position of Tawarruk

Narrated by Muhammad bin `Amr bin `Ata' (رضي الله عنه): I was sitting with some of the companions of Allah's Messenger ﷺ and we were discussing about the way of praying of the Prophet. Abu Humaid As-Sa‘idi said, "I remember the prayer of Allah's Messenger ﷺ better than any one of you. I saw him...... in the last rak‘ah he pushed his left foot forward and kept the other foot propped up and sat over the buttocks." 196

Note:

One should only sit in Tawarruk in those prayers that have more than one Tashahud.

What to Say in The Last Tashahud

One must recite the following:

الْتَحَیَّاتُ لِلّهِ، وَالصَّلَوَاتُ وَالطَّیِّبَاتُ، السَّلَامُ عَلَیكَ أَبِیا النَّبِیِّ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَکَانَا، السَّلَامُ عَلیّنَا
وَعَلیّ عَیَّادِ اللَّهِ الصَّالِحِینَ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ، وأَشْهَدُ أَنْ مُحْمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُوْلُهُ

(All the compliments, prayers and good things are due to Allah; peace be on you, O Prophet, and Allah's mercy and blessings [be on you]. Peace be on us an on the pious subjects of Allah). (If you say that, it will reach all the subjects in the heaven and the earth). (I testify that there is no Deity [worthy of worship] but Allah, and I testify that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger). 197

After Reciting the Tashahud One Should Recite Salah (Blessings) Upon The Prophets Muhammad and Ibrahim. This Invocation Can Be Any of the Below:

اللهم صل على محمد وعلى آل محمد، كما صلبت على إبراهيم وعلى آل إبراهيم، إنك حميد مجيد، اللهم بارك على محمد وعلى آل محمد، كما باركت على إبراهيم وعلى آل إبراهيم، إنك حميد مجيد

O Allah! Send Your Mercy on Muhammad and on the family of Muhammad, as You sent Your Mercy on Abraham and on the family of Abraham, for You are the Most Praise-worthy, the Most Glorious. O Allah! Send Your Blessings on Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, as You sent your Blessings on Abraham and on the family of Abraham, for You are the Most Praise-worthy, the Most Glorious."

"Say: O Allah! Send Your Mercy on Muhammad and on his wives and on his off spring, as You sent Your Mercy on Abraham’s family; and send Your Blessings on Muhammad and on his offspring, as You sent Your Blessings on Abraham’s family, for You are the Most Praiseworthy, the Most Glorious.""}

"O Allah, bless Muhammad and the members of his household as You did bless the members of Ibrahim’s household. Grant favors to Muhammad and the members of his household as You did grant favors to the members of the household of Ibrahim in the world. You are indeed Praiseworthy and Glorious."
Then One Can Recite Any of the Following Supplications:

(O Allah, I seek refuge with You from the punishment of the grave, from the afflictions of the imposter- Messiah, and from the afflictions of life and death. O Allah, I seek refuge with You from sins and from debt).

(O Allah! I have done great injustice to myself and none except You forgives sins, so bestow on me a forgiveness from You, and Have Mercy on me, You are the Forgiver, the Merciful).

(O Allah, forgive me for what I have sent before me and what I have left behind me (in deeds), what I have concealed and what I have done openly, what I have done in excess, and what You are better aware of than I. You are the One who sends forth and You are the One who delays. There is none worthy of worship but You.)

One Can Say Any Of The Supplications That Are Found In The Sunnah After Saying Salah Upon The Messenger Of Allah ﷺ.
Chapter of Tasleem (Turning The Face to The Right and Then to The Left and Saying: Assalaamu ‘Alaikum Wa Rahmatullah at The End of the Salah)

At the end of the Tashahud one makes Salaam to the right and then to the left. The first salaam is obligatory and the second is Sunnah. Both Salaams are recited as follows:

السَّلاَمُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُ اللهِ

“May peace and Allaah’s Mercy be upon you”.

It is Sunnah to turn facing the right until the people behind can see the right cheek and (then) left so that those behind can see the left cheek.204

قَالُواَ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُسْعِودٍ، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَى الله عليه وسلم كَانَ يُسَلَّمُ عِنْ يَمِينِهِ " السَّلَا مَ" عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللهِ. حَتَّى يُرُى بِبَيَاضُ حَدَّهُ الأَيْمَنِ وَعَنْ يَمِينِهِ " السَّلَا مَ" عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللهِ. حَتَّى يُرُى بِبَيَاضُ حَدَّهُ الأَيْسَرِ.

‘Abdullah bin Mas‘ud (رضي الله عنه) narrated that: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to say salaam to his right: “Assalaamu ‘alaikum wa rahmatullahi (Peace be upon you and the mercy of Allah) until the whiteness of his right cheek could be seen, and to his left: Assalamu ‘alaykum wa rahmatullahi (peace be upon you and the mercy of Allah) until the whiteness of his left cheek could be seen.”205

205 Sahih: Recorded in Sunan Nasa’i (no. 1325)
'Amir bin Sa'd (رضي الله عنه) reported: I saw the Messenger of Allah ﷺ pronouncing taslim on his right and on his left till I saw the whiteness of his cheek.

All praise is due to Allah and His blessings and peace be upon His Prophet, his family and his companions.
